Our Vision

“DEVELOPING INNOVATIVE AND ETHICAL FUTURE EDUCATIONIST”

With the sense of shared responsibility and ingenuity, Our Vision is to be a preeminent centre of excellence, generating and imparting knowledge in the field of education. We envision to amplify our contribution towards providing socially conscious and globally relevant teacher fraternity, who can withstand & accommodate dynamic needs of individual differences & global scenario.

State Council of Educational Research and Training (SCERT), Delhi is an autonomous body of the Government of NCT of Delhi established in 1988. It is a nodal agency recognized by the National Council of Teacher Education (NCTE) for admission, curriculum construction, course conduct, guidance, examination and certification of pre-service training programme in the area pre-primary and elementary education viz Two year Diploma for – Diploma in Elementary Education (D.El.Ed.). The curriculum is renewed periodically by a Curriculum Committee comprising experts with long experience in the area of education. The quality of teacher education being offered has received appreciation from Department of Education. The Course consists of theory and practical work in the DIETs/Institutes schools and the community. A variety of activities undertaken in the DIETs/Institutes such as morning assembly, sports and cultural programmes, debates, work experience, art and craft work etc. offer an opportunity to the students to experience a reflection of life in schools. Students are also given the exposure & experience in the area of action research, and experimentation for improving classroom pedagogy, teaching learning, development of curricula and community involvement in school education, publications. While all DIETs/Institutes offer curricular content of equivalent quality and engage in similar functions, each DIET/Institute has a unique history of development that has generated unique resources. Engaging in the activities of the DIETs/Institutes is a rich experience that can be fully appreciated in later years of professional advancement.

Important Instructions for DIET Delhi Admission 2021

The candidates are required to keep the following things in mind if they are taking admission into D.El.Ed / DPSE course.

1.Ineligible candidates: If at any stage, the official authority finds out that the candidate is ineligible, his / her candidature shall be canceled. So, before applying make sure to cross- check the eligibility.

2.Unfair means: It must be noted that any use of unfair means such as submitting the forged mark sheets/certificates etc shall lead to the cancellation of admission and legal action might be taken against the parent/candidate.

3.Wrongly mentioned marks: If any candidate has specified their marks or percentage in DIET Delhi admission form 2021 wrong or incorrect and then, a claim for admission on the basis of their correct marks at the time of admission shall not be entertained. This will not be considered even if their correct marks are under the cut-off score in the admission list. However, SCERT might take the decision on this as and when needed.

4.Original certificates submission: The candidates must note that the original certificates submitted shall be retained by the principal of DIETS / SFS recognized private institutes, where candidates shall be admitted for 6 months from the date of admission. Hence, it is advised to candidates to keep enough photocopies of documents with them.

5.Mobile number to be given at the time of application process: Make sure to mention that mobile number that is accessible to them.

Document Verification

Once the merit list has been declared, the candidates have to report at the allotted institute for the document verification. If any candidate does not report for the document verification, his / her candidature shall be canceled.

The documents that have to be take in original at the time of verification are:

- Printout of DIET Delhi admission form
- Class 10th mark sheet
- Class 12th mark sheet
- Original certificate of class 10th or its equivalent examination

- Candidates taking admission from NIOS or any other distance board must submit any proof for showing that they have cleared class 12th examination from the concerned study center along with other documents

What happens if a candidate fails to produce the above given documents?

If the candidates fails the above given documents in original at the time of verification then, their allotted seats shall be cancelled and the same seat shall be allotted to the next candidate in the merit list. But, if a candidate wants to take part in the online counselling then they shall be given an opportunity to edit the form and get a virtual vacancy in DIET / institute after the submission of e-counselling fee.

However, if a candidate fails to remove the deficiency and does not provide original documents or valid certificate from the concerned authority, then his / her candidature shall be cancelled. No further correspondence in this regard shall be entertained.

Note:

Seeing the Covid-19 pandemic for the safety of application prior physical verification of document will not be carried out . All the applicants are advised to fill the application form carefully and take a printout of the finally corrected application form. No editing is allowed after mentioned schedule during the allocation round.

Seats will be provisionally allocated based on the rank of applicants in the respective category and sub-category. If any discrepancy in documents/papers is noticed during verification/reporting her candidature will be rejected for that seat. However, the applicant will be allowed to participate after correction/editing during counseling after payment of prescribed fees non-refundable through online.

Admission List

After the verification of documents, the admission lists are published on the official website. According to the merit, choices filled by the candidate and category, the seats are allotted. The allotment of seats can be checked through login. If the seat has been allotted to a candidate, then he / she can download the provisional allotment letter after the payment of Rs 1800 (part admission fee).

It must be noted that provisional allotment offer letters are generated only after the reporting of the candidates to the allotted institute.

Freezing of seats: The term of 'freezing of seat' refers to when candidates freeze a seat after the allotment. This means that the candidate does not want to take part in the further allotment process. The candidates can freeze their seat through their login id by clicking on the 'freeze' button within the deadline.

However, if the candidates does not freeze the allotted seat then, the next higher preference shall be allotted to them in the next round after considering the availability of seats, and choice / preferences filled by the candidates. If in case, a candidate is upgraded to the next DIET / institute, then his / her earlier allotment will automatically end.

After the third round of admission, the candidates are required to physically report to the allotted institute. However, if a candidate wants to take part in the online counselling round then they have to pay Rs 1000.

Sliding of seats: The verified candidates who have been allotted seats and have paid part fee and have reported during the allocation rounds can be considered for sliding. The sliding of seat option is available for those candidates who did not withdraw their admission and did not freeze the allocated seat. The sliding option is available to the candidates as per the availability of seats, preferences chosen by them during the online application process and their merit.

Some Important Points for Sliding of Seats

- If a candidate has paid the part fee and does not want to take part in the sliding round, then they have to freeze their allotted seat.
- At the end of each sliding round, the candidates must report to their allotted DIET/institute for document verification and payment of admission fees.
- The sliding option after the 3rd round of allocation is available to only those candidates who submit an online request (OTP-based) and pay the counseling participation fee.

Physical Reporting at the Allotted Institute

All the candidates who have been allocated seats and have their names on the admitted list submitted by the respective institutes shall be called "admitted students". These candidates have to then physically report to their allotted institutes for the completion of admission processes.

Online Counselling

If there are any vacant seats after the 3 rounds for DIET Delhi admission 2021, the online counselling takes place. The vacancy status is displayed on the official website only. For the online counseling, only those candidates are considered who were allotted a seat in any of the 3 admission lists but could not take admission due to some reason.

In order to participate in DIET Delhi admission 2021 online counseling, the candidates have to pay participating non – non-refundable fee of Rs 1000 (amount as per last year's information). The candidates have to submit the options online only. After the payment of the counseling participation fee and submission of choices/preferences, the seats are allotted to the candidates. The candidates have to then report to their allotted institute for the completion of the admission process.
