

Republic Day Celebration

Date: 24th January' 2020

Venue: Gitarattan Institute of Advanced Studies & Training

“Freedom in Our Mind, Faith in our Hearts, Memories in our Soul”.

Republic Day honors the date on which the Constitution of India came into effect on 26 January 1950 replacing the Government of India Act (1935) as the governing document of India.

The 71st Republic Day was celebrated with lot of enthusiasm and pride on 24th January 2020 in Gitarattan Institute of Advanced Studies and Training, Rohini. The entire institute was drenched in the spirit of celebration and joy. A magnificent program was organized to mark this auspicious day. Prof. Sonia Jindal, Principal and Sri R.N.Jindal, Chairman graced this occasion by their presence.

The theme of the program was Cultural Diversity where students presented culture of different states through various items like folk dance, patriotic songs, poetry recitation, nukkad natak, etc. The state tableau was also included to appreciate and celebrate each state's unique identity.

The program was initiated with a parade to welcome and honor the guests and dignitaries. It showcased the dances and melodies from various states and various relevant issues like " Beti Bachao Beti Padhao" , farmers and their Importance in Economy, 'Swachh Bharat Swasth Bharat', Stop Pollution, etc. were effectively presented by the students of GIAST.

Prof. Sonia Jindal, Principal, GIAST, interacted with the students to know about their reflections on this day and the importance it played in each Indian's Life. She talked about the duties we have towards our Motherland. She advised the students to remain in touch with the social issues prevalent in our society and to contribute in their own way for the benefit of the society.

The program ended with a resolute speech given to evoke the patriotic feeling in our heart and spirit by the respected Chairman, Sri. R.N.Jindal. He talked about the history of India by narrating the various historical events which marked and led to the celebration of 26th January. He gave emphasis on the current issues which are evident in our society. He motivated each and every student and teachers to participate and dwell on the virtues of hard work and discipline. It was a great platform, where everyone got the insight of the auspicious occasion and celebrated the dignity of patriotism.
